Chairman, National Intelligence Council

FROM : [REDACTED]
Public Affairs Officer

STAT

SUBJECT : Visit of the National Business Economic Issues
Council

1. [REDACTED] the Congressional Budget Office requested a briefing for the members of the National Business Economic Issues Council (NBEIC). Twenty-one members including guests of the Council will be attending the briefing that you will be giving in the DCI Conference room Wednesday, 2 February from 3:30 - 4:30 P.M.

2. The NBEIC is gathering in Washington to have one of its quarterly "off the record" meetings to discuss the state of the economy. At these meetings each participant reviews the sector of the economy in which he is involved. The members of the NBEIC are senior corporate executives from the industrial and financial corporations that have international dealings.
Although some of the members have government backgrounds, none of them except [REDACTED] have been to CIA. Their interests lie in worldwide political and economic developments and the possible business repercussions.
[REDACTED] President of the Council is the chief economist for the Union Carbide. Please note that [REDACTED] a reporter on economics for The New York Times, will be in attendance. Enclosed is a list of all attendees.
